Athlete Biography Chris Lori – Bobsleigh

Widely regarded as the pilot who put Canadian bobsledding on the map and helped build a tradition of excellence that has carried well into the new millennium, Chris Lori is one of a few select Canadians to compete in four Olympic Winter Games.

Over his 14-year career, Lori represented Canada at the 1988, 1992, 1994 and 1998 Olympic Winter Games and achieved a notable fourth-place result during the four-man event in Albertville, France in 1992.

The first non-European to win the four-man overall World Cup title in 1990, Lori continued to enjoy great success in the discipline in the following years, placing second and third in 1991 and 1992 respectively. Lori concluded his career by finishing in the top-three of the overall World Cup standings on nine separate occasions, including winning back-to-back overall two-man titles in 1991 and 1992.

On the World Cup circuit, Lori piloted Canada to 22 podium finishes and over 50 top-five results while also accumulating a total of 14 Canadian Championship titles.
